Fyne Homes Competence Framework Expected Behaviours For All Staff

Behaviour Definition	ALL STAFF
	Examples of behaviours where effectiveness is demonstrated	Examples of behaviours where development is required
TEAMWORK This competency implies the intention of working co-operatively with others, to be part of a team, to work together as opposed to working separately or competitively. It requires the creation and maintenance of genuine, positive, professional and trusting working relationships with colleagues and clients. At all levels it means working as a team, supporting others, sharing information and building positive relationships both within Fyne Homes and with external clients.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is always approachable and builds rapport with colleagues. • Considers the team's objectives before their own personal objectives. • Is open to feedback and accepts it positively. • Offers constructive feedback in a way, which makes it acceptable to others. • Rises above personal team conflicts in order to achieve team goals. • Makes time to support their colleagues. • Is always willing to 'roll up their sleeves' and help colleagues. • Is keen to learn from others and to help others learn. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Is reluctant to help colleagues and has difficulty relating to colleagues. • Puts own objectives before team objectives. • Fails to support other team members. • Has a defensive attitude and is reluctant to accept feedback. • Allows personal conflicts to get in the way of team goals. • Does not consult with colleagues. • Refuses to do any task which they view as outwith their remit. Is only concerned with their own development

	Examples of behaviours where effectiveness is demonstrated	Examples of behaviours where development is required
TAKES OWNERSHIP This is about acting in a way that is consistent with what one says or values and the expectations of Fyne Homes. It requires a demonstration of commitment to openness and ethical values such as honesty, honour and reliability. It includes being transparent and truthful whilst engaging with all people.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Accepts personal responsibility for own actions • Maintains commitments and completes undertakings • Accepts and learns from their mistakes. • Takes ownership of any issues/problems highlighted by customer and if at all possible ensures they are resolved • Takes a "get it right first time attitude" to everything 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Passes responsibility to others inappropriately • Lets people down by not maintaining commitments • Does not respect confidentiality • Passes the buck • Lets someone else solve the problem "It's not my problem"

Behaviour Definition	ALL STAFF
	Examples of behaviours where effectiveness is demonstrated	Examples of behaviours where development is required
COMMUNICATION Being able to communicate in the work environment is essential. This competence reflects the ability to influence and communicate with others both within and beyond Fyne Homes, including individuals, groups, external bodies or markets to gain buy-in or co-operation. It includes speaking up for what you believe is best for the business. Outstanding performers not only ensure that the formal presentation is impressive and the business logic lucid and unassailable, but also lobby, use third parties, find sponsors and champions, actively network and think through the approaches that are most likely to succeed in positioning their objective as well as Fyne Homes position.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communication is accurate and easy to understand by the receiver. • Communication is concise. • Communication is grammatically correct. • Actively listens to clarify questions and issues. • Uses questions to check understanding. • Avoids using jargon when explaining technical issues. • Provides explanation when the use of jargon is unavoidable. • Adapts their language to the needs of the listener. • Issues are raised in a sensitive way without causing offences. • Applies the organisation's policy on confidentiality of information • Communicate positive body language and vocal cues • Communicates the correct attitude 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Communication is inaccurate or misleading. • Communication is rambling or long-winded. • Grammar is used incorrectly. • Does not pick up key points. • Uses jargon unnecessarily and without explanation. • Is tactless when raising issues. • Uses the same approach regardless of the audience. • Does not comply with the Organisation's policy on confidentiality of information • Concentrates only on the words you speak not the body language or vocal cues • Comes across as being negative, unhelpful, uncaring etc

Behaviour Definition	ALL STAFF
	Examples of behaviours where effectiveness is demonstrated	Examples of behaviours where development is required
CUSTOMER SERVICE We are committed to excellent customer service through the provision of high quality, reliable services in which our clients come first. We are committed to listening to them and responding to their needs accurately, promptly and fully. We will act on feedback to improve the services they receive. We will deliver on promises and do what we say we will. We will set and publicise our aims, objectives and targets, whilst making the best use of resources.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Always puts clients first. • Establishes friendly but business-like relationships with clients. • Displays a positive impression of their team and Fyne Homes by being helpful at all times. • Displays an understanding of client's needs and expectations. • Promises made to clients can always be delivered. • Ensures clients are informed and updated on progress. • Remains patient and calm even when dealing with difficult calls or face-to-face situations. • Value their internal clients as well as external clients. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Does not regard clients as their highest priority. • Does not attempt to build rapport with clients. • Only does the minimum required of them. • Does not try to see things from the client's perspective. • Fails to deliver on promises. • Keeps clients in the dark on progress. • Is disrespectful and impatient when dealing with difficult call or face-to-face situations. • Is unhelpful to internal clients.

Behaviour Definition	ALL STAFF
	Examples of behaviours where effectiveness is demonstrated	Examples of behaviours where development is required
ADAPTATION TO CHANGE Fyne Homes works in a changing environment and has to embrace these changes. In order for the Association to be successful, individuals will need to actively support change, be as flexible and adaptable as possible, pre-empting change where required, adopt change as a positive thing, and be creative, innovative and resourceful. Leaders as well as demonstrating all of these must be able to actively encourage all of these behaviours in others and lead others through change.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sees change as a positive thing and an opportunity • Actively supports change to colleagues • Shows flexibility and adaptability when trying out any new system or process • Proactively looks at continuous improvement, suggesting better and more efficient ways of doing things. • Shows commitment to the long term goals of the Association 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Sees change as a negative thing • Demotivates colleagues by portraying a negative attitude towards change and openly discussing issues in a negative way • Shows no or little flexibility or adaptability to anything new; digs their heels in, creating barriers, to prevent the new system from working. • Sits back and focuses on the present discouraging anything new • Waits for others to come up with new ideas

FYNE HOMES

HOW WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION

We, Fyne Homes, are the controller of the personal information that we hold about you. This means that we are legally responsible for how we hold and use personal information about you. It also means that we are required to comply with data protection laws when holding and using your personal information. This includes providing you with the details contained within this statement of how we hold and use your personal information, who we may share it with and your rights in relation to your personal information.

We have appointed a Data Protection Officer (DPO), Daradjeet Jagpal, who ensures that we comply with data protection laws. If you have any questions about this statement or how we hold or use your personal information, please contact the DPO by: e-mail at fynedpo@infolawsolutions.co.uk; telephone on 07848 171 635; or writing to: The Data Protection Officer, 81 Victoria Street, Rothesay, Isle of Bute, PA20 0AP.

You can also contact us by: e-mail at postmaster@fynehomes.co.uk; telephone on 0345 607 7117; or writing to: Fyne Homes, 81 Victoria Street, Rothesay, Isle of Bute, PA20 0AP.

Your attention is particularly drawn to section 3 of this statement, which confirms that you consent to your personal information and sensitive personal information being held and used by us as described in section 2 of this statement.

1. What personal information do we hold and use about you?

While we anonymise applications for employment prior to assessment, we may need to hold and use the personal information that you provide to us as part of your application and / or other personal information that we may obtain about you from you (for example, during an interview) and from third parties (including referees). This includes your:

- name;
- contact information;
- age;
- gender;
- identification documentation, such as your passport and / or driving licence;
- employment history and experience, including job titles, duties, salaries and skills gained;
- education, qualifications, training courses completed and professional memberships held (including copies of certificates);
- responses to questions in the application form which allow us to compare your experience, skills and knowledge with our requirements;

- relationship (if any) to our staff, Committee members, suppliers, consultants or contractors;
- hobbies and interests;
- referees' names, contact details and job titles;
- nationality and immigration status and right to work in the UK (including relevant supporting documentation);
- sensitive personal information about your racial or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, your physical and / or mental health, religious or other similar beliefs and / or political opinions (where you choose to share this with us as part of your application); and
- criminal records information, including Disclosure Scotland and / or Protecting Vulnerable Groups scheme checks (if relevant to the position that you are applying for).

The law requires you to provide certain of the above personal information to allow us to verify your right to work in the UK and to assess your suitability for the position applied for. If you do not provide us with this personal information, we may not be able to process your application successfully and / or take it further.

2. Why do we hold and use this personal information about you?

We hold and use this personal information to:

- carry out the recruitment process and assess your application for employment;
- verify the qualifications information provided by you;
- verify the criminal records information provided by you;
- carry out right to work and other statutory background checks;
- shortlist for and arrange an interview with you (if applicable);
- comply with legal requirements when arranging an interview with you (if applicable);
- comply with our equal opportunity monitoring obligations;
- communicate with and inform you of the outcome of the recruitment process;
- obtain references about you from your referees (if applicable); and
- protect and defend our legal rights in the case of a dispute between us.

3. What is our legal basis for holding and using your personal information?

Data protection laws require us to have a legal reason for holding and using your personal information. Our legal reasons for holding and using your personal information include:

- complying with the laws that apply to us, such as to check your eligibility to work in the UK and to make appropriate adjustments to comply with disability discrimination and accessibility laws when arranging an interview with you (if applicable);
- taking steps to enter into an employment contract with you, if your application is successful; and
- protecting our legitimate interests – in the highly unlikely event that we do not have another legal reason, we may have a legitimate interest in handling and using your personal information. In those circumstances, we will always consider your legitimate interests in the protection of your personal information, and will balance those against our own legitimate interests in handling and using your personal information for the purposes described in section 2 of this statement.

In very limited circumstances, we may rely on your consent as the legal reason. By providing us with your personal information and sensitive personal information (including your racial or ethnic origin, sexual orientation, your physical and / or mental health, religious or other similar beliefs and / or political opinions) and the personal information and sensitive personal information of other individuals (including your referees), you:

- consent to it being used by us as described in section 2 of this statement; and
- confirm that you have informed the other individuals if they are of 12 years old and above of the content of this statement and they have provided their consent to their personal information and sensitive personal information being used by us as described in section 2 of this statement.

You and the individuals have the right to withdraw your consent to us holding and using your and their personal information and sensitive personal information by contacting us. Once you / they have withdrawn your / their consent, we will no longer use your / their personal information and sensitive personal information for the purpose(s) set out in section 2 of this statement, which you originally agreed to, unless we have another legal reason for doing so.

4. Who do we share your personal information with?

We may share your personal information with the following organisations for the purposes described in section 2 of this statement:

- our consultants, advisers and IT service providers;
- our solicitors;
- your referees; and
- Disclosure Scotland.

5. How long do we keep your personal information?

We keep the personal information that we obtain about you during the recruitment process for no longer than we need to meet any legal, accounting, reporting or regulatory requirements.

We keep recruitment information (including interview notes) for 12 months after the recruitment process has been completed. We will only keep recruitment information for longer than this if your application for employment is successful (we will only keep the recruitment information that is relevant to your employment).

We may also retain your personal information if you indicate to us that you wish us to do so in case a further similar opportunity arises in the future.

More information is contained in our data retention policy, which is available by contacting our DPO.

6. What rights do you have in relation to your personal information that we hold and use?

It is important that the personal information that we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed of any changes. Under certain circumstances, the law gives you the right to request:

- A copy of your personal information and to check that we are holding and using it in accordance with legal requirements.
- Correction of any incomplete or inaccurate personal information that we hold about you.

- Deletion of your personal information where there is no good reason for us continuing to hold and use it. You also have the right to ask us to do this where you object to us holding and using your personal information (details below).
- Temporarily suspend the use of your personal information, for example, if you want us to check that it is correct or the reason for processing it or to stop us from using your personal information altogether if we have committed a breach of data protection laws.
- The transfer of your personal information to another organisation, for example, the transfer of your training record to a future employer.

You can also object to us holding and using your personal information where our legal reason is a legitimate interest (either our legitimate interests or those of a third party).

Please contact our DPO if you wish to make any of the above requests. When you make a request, we may ask you for specific information to help us confirm your identity for security reasons. You will not need to pay a fee when you make any of the above requests, but we may charge a reasonable fee or refuse to comply if your request for access is clearly unfounded or excessive.

7. Feedback and complaints

We welcome your feedback on how we hold and use your personal information, and this can be sent to our DPO.

You have the right to make a complaint to the Information Commissioner, the UK regulator for data protection, about how we hold and use your personal information. The ICO's contact details are as follows:

Telephone: 0303 123 1113
