Declaration

I/we have completed this form with answers that are true and correct. I/we understand that a tenancy may be terminated, or application suspended, if any answers or statements are found to be false, misleading or deliberately deficient.

I/we consent to information contained within this form being shared between the Housing Associations participating in the HOME Argyll Common Application Form. Information may also be shared with other agencies, such as the Council and the NHS, in order to ensure that my/our housing needs and housing support needs are assessed in accordance with the HOME Argyll common allocation policy.

I/we consent to the Housing Associations making such tenancy, financial, medical, legal and other enquiries deemed necessary to obtain confirmation from previous landlords, employers, mortgage lenders, Social Work agencies, the Police or health professionals, in order to verify information provided in this form.

I/we undertake to notify one of the partner Associations immediately should my/ our circumstances change.

I/we understand that in completing this form we are applying to be admitted to the common housing list. This does not guarantee access to housing, as the number of people seeking housing in Argyll and Bute is larger than the number of houses which become available.
